Troy,

I would like to say thank you from all of us here at Architectural Design by DeLorme and Associates, for your powerful and motivating talk you gave at our company planning meeting.

Too often we take our blessings for granted. Hearing about your challenges and how you worked to overcome them and put your troubled past behind you helped put trivial issues in perspective for all of us.

As you know, several builders and associates attended our lunch meeting and your talk, many approached me afterwards wondering how I found you, what gave me the idea to have you speak, etc... but all delivered the same message. Grateful, that they had a chance to join us and hear your message.

We all sincerely wish you nothing but the best in the years to come.

Regards,

Jeff DeLorme
