

ROTARY CLUB OF PHOENIX, ARIZONA

Club 100 – Organized March 1, 1914

January 28, 2001

A rare standing ovation followed Troy Evan's presentation to Phoenix Rotary 100 in January 2001. The 165 members and guests were on their feet to show appreciation for an excellent presentation and to pay tribute to an extraordinary individual.

The weekly newsletter's "It Happened at Club 100" report carried the line: "The first moments of his presentation grabbed the audience and kept the members riveted." Troy's speech was shocking, enlightening, heart rendering and timely.

Few understand the world of narcotics and fewer still understand the profound difficulties encountered attempting to leave it. After reaching the absolute depths an individual can experience without dying, Troy decided to leave that world.

Troy Evans is not an ordinary person. His courageous climb from the rock bottom of the drug world overcame obstacles that would have incapacitated an ordinary person. Today he serves as a role model to everyone from at-risk youth to bewildered parents to community leaders.

The story Troy shares with audiences is relevant to every age. We at Phoenix Rotary 100 highly recommend him to any group seeking a real show-stopping program – with an impact.
