RE: 2005 Fall Law Enforcement Conference

Dear Troy,

I would like to take this opportunity to thank you for your outstanding contribution to the 2005 Fall Law Enforcement Conference. Your presentation on From Desperation to Dedication: Lessons You Can Bank On was well received. After reviewing the conference evaluations, the planning team noted extremely positive feedback from the attendees regarding your presentation. As the Acting Law Enforcement Coordinator for the U.S. Attorney's Office, Southern District of Indiana, my role is to help put together conferences and other training opportunities for law enforcement that are meaningful, relevant, and beneficial to all those who attend. Your participation in this year's conference was instrumental in meeting these goals and was very much appreciated. Please accept my thanks on behalf of the entire planning team and allow me to extend special thanks from Joe Wainscott, our former Law Enforcement Coordinator, who was the Chair of the planning team.

Sincerely,
SUSAN W. BROOKS
