Dear Mr. Evans:

We continue to receive rave reviews for our 2008 SCSBA Annual Convention and I want to thank you so much for the role you played in its success.

Your keynote address, From Desperation to Dedication: The Strength to Believe, received very high evaluation scores from our members. I have heard such positive comments about the quality of your presentation. I appreciate so much the time you spent in preparation for the address and also your willingness to share your very powerful story.

We take responsibility for providing school board members quality presentations very seriously and were so pleased that your schedule permitted your participation in the convention.

Sincerely,

Gwen Jobs Hampton, MSW
Director of Leadership Development
