Dear Troy

The Executive Board of UASSP expresses to you their appreciation for the great presentation you made to our members at the Mid Winter Conference in St. George Utah. They were very impressed with you and the message you gave. You have had some very interesting experiences and you have faced some great challenges, yet you have made the right choices to get you where you are today. It was interesting to watch the audience as you told your great story. They were spell bound and afterward many approached you to thank you and to see if they could get you to come and address their faculty and their students.

We were very impressed and thank you for helping make our conference a success. If we can be of further help to you please contact us. The Arizona Association has contacted me and I have given them a very high recommendation for you and your presentation.

Good luck in all you do.

Respectfully

Carl Boyington
