Dear Troy,

I want to extend my thanks to you for providing WEAC members with your powerful presentation at our annual WEAC Convention the past two Octobers. While the message that you deliver in "From Desperation to Dedication: The success of an educated ex-con" may be one that is especially suitable for teachers and education professionals, it is quite relevant for everyone in our society.

Both years that you have presented, the evaluations were very positive. The members who attend our convention are very critical consumers and the fact that you received excellent feedback both times is a testament to both the message that you have to deliver and your dedication as a professional. Presenters like you make my job as the convention coordinator much easier.

The central premise of your presentation is the redemptive power of education and we live in a time when we are in desperate need of exactly that message! Thank you for all you do. I give you my strongest recommendation and look forward to working with you again in the future.

Sincerely,

Ronald Jetty, Ph.D.
