

ICBA

INDEPENDENT COMMUNITY BANKERS ASSOCIATION OF NEW MEXICO

NEW MEXICO

September 7, 2005

To Whom It May Concern:

Our association brought in Troy Evans (convicted bank robber with a terrific moral message) for our opening convention dinner and he was well received by our bankers.

Honestly, I had hesitated in bringing him in for about six years - not knowing how he might "fit" with our group. I should not have worried. Banker after banker told me he was one of the brightest spots on this year's program.

I am pleased to recommend him not only as a speaker to you but also as a nice, easy going guy who is a pleasure to work with. If you have need of a practical, yet inspiring, message then I heartily encourage you to consider Troy Evans.

Sincerely,

Jerry C. Walker
Executive Director