Dear Mr. Evans:

I wanted to let you know how much the conference participants enjoyed and appreciated the message you delivered as a Keynote Speaker for the 2006 Arkansas SHRM Conference. The positive response was tremendous. You were a breath of fresh air for us!

Your message was so enlightening! You are very adept at tying your experiences into the day to day trials of the human resource professional. As you stated, "We are all in our own prison, one way or another", and you gave us food for thought to break free of those restraints.

Should anyone be hesitant to engage your services, please feel free to refer them to me. It would be my honor to share with them the positive response we had regarding your presentation.

I look forward to our paths crossing in the future.

Sincerely,

Ruth L. Anderson
