To Whom It May Concern:

It is a pleasure for me to write this letter of recommendation for Troy Evans. Troy recently provided a keynote presentation for the Arizona SADD "Decision for Caring" Conference in Mesa Arizona, with over 600 students in attendance.

Troy speaks from experience and from the heart. The entire student body was a very captive audience and could have listened much longer. Troy points out in no uncertain terms the dangers involved with drug and alcohol use, yet not in a "preaching" manner, with is important to young people.

Troy is an effective speaker, and I would recommend him for any audience group from junior high through adults. His message is truly one that will not be forgotten.

Sincerely,
