To Whom It May Concern:

Troy Evans did a wonderful job of illustrating to our students the dire consequences that can result from drug use and poor decision-making. In addition, he portrayed the reality and brutality of prison life in a way that made an impression on everyone in the audience. He also showed our students that it is possible to grow and to learn from the mistakes that we have made.

Mr. Evans kept our students' attention with his interesting presentation. He also provided students with the opportunity to ask questions at the conclusion of his presentation. I would recommend Troy Evans as a speaker. He is articulate, and he has a very interesting story to tell.

Sincerely,
